

CBI members hear PFI market is on road to recovery

CBI members recently heard the Treasury's Charles Lloyd set out the prospects for the private financing and provision of public services.

In the second of a series of CBI breakfast seminars on public-private partnerships (PPPs) on 15 July Charles Lloyd, Head of Public Private Partnerships at the Treasury, described the state of the market for PPP deals - particularly private finance initiative (PFI) contracts - and explained to members how the Treasury Infrastructure Finance Unit (TIFU) is supporting new projects and providing much needed market tension.

In the second of a series of CBI breakfast seminars on public-private partnerships (PPPs) on 15 July Charles Lloyd, Head of Public Private Partnerships at the Treasury, described the state of the market for PPP deals - particularly private finance initiative (PFI) contracts - and explained to members how the Treasury Infrastructure Finance Unit (TIFU) is supporting new projects and providing much needed market tension.

TPP Law Limited
July 2009

For further information, please contact Mark Johnson on t 020 7620 0888
e mark@tpplaw.co.uk.

Whilst every effort is made to ensure accuracy of the content, no responsibility can be accepted for errors or omissions. The content is for general guidance and is not a substitute for specific legal advice.